

Haim Ring Memorial Award required information for individual applicants

You are kindly invited to include the following information:

1.- Nominee's name and contact information:

2.- Nominee's primary and secondary affiliated institutions (hospital/medical center; university affiliation, if applicable):

3.- Curriculum vitae (CV):

Please confirm that you fulfil the following requirement: to be an Active Individual Member (AIM), in good standing.

Competence

1.- Academic and clinical appointments, research interests (participation in research projects), publications (publications reference, on Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (PRM) topics) and invited presentations (title of the invited presentations on PRM topics, scientific meeting, year).

2.- PRM Certification

National PRM certification(s)

Specific PRM specialty area certification

International PRM certification(s)

3.- Scientific Society/ies membership

International Society of PRM (ISPRM): 1

PRM National Society

Other scientific society/ies

4.- Awards and recognition

ISPRM award/s or recognition/s

PRM National Society award/s or recognition

Other academic, scientific or health organization: award/s or recognition/s

Contribution to international exchange:

5. Number of academic observers or participants, number and duration of the education or learning program, courses, schools, professional visits.

5.1. Number of academic observers or participants, in the education or learning program, courses, schools, professional visits.

Number, name, affiliation, town, country of current residence, and country of origin of the academic observers or participants, if known.

5.2. Number of postgraduate (PG) PRM physician or physiatrist's education or learning program, courses, schools, with international exchange academic observers or participants.

Name of the education or learning programs, if known, courses, schools, and name of the visitor, regarding "professional visits".

5.3. Duration of PG PRM physician or physiatrist's education or learning program, courses, schools, professional visits, with international exchange academic observers or participants.

Duration in days or weeks. Report 1st day and last day, if known.

Content of the program:

6. Content and content quality of the PG PRM education or learning program, at the nominee's local institution.

Description of the program(s), including duration, in days or weeks, including 1st day and last day, if known.

.

6.1. Content of the PG PRM education or learning program.

Report the following information, if known:

Attending inpatient visits with the physicians

Attending outpatient clinic visits with the physicians

Participating in practical programs (e.g. labs and hands-on works)

Resident's Seminars

One grand round

Resident's journal club

Nominee's direct interaction with the academic observer, following his/her progress and discussing training program.

Duration of the program 2 weeks or more

Any other related information may be included in this list.

Impact of the program on the observer or participant:

Number of observer's or participant's feedback documents

The observers' feedback on the visit program, or the observers' achievements afterwards, that may be attributed to the program. Description of the feedback, including number and content of observer's or participants' report, such as letters, emails, if available.

Other initiatives:

Number and initiatives to strengthen low- and medium-income countries, including number and names, if known, of Undergraduate Medical School students, PG PRM physicians, physiatrists, and allied professionals' learning, in the field of Rehabilitation.

Statement on nominee's contribution to international learning exchange (not to exceed 200 words).